6. The candidates who have not registered for counselling within stipulated time will not be considered for subsequent stages of online counselling process.
7. The candidates are required to fill the preference while registration before the last date of locking of preferences, failing which the preferences will be automatically locked, which cannot be altered. In case the candidate has not filled his/her preferences while registration, the preferences will be automatically picked by system as a default choice.
8. Candidates must check their Admission Dashboard, Email, Mobile (SMS) and University Website for all communications, updates and schedule/change in schedule.
9. Based on NCET score obtained by the candidates, a comprehensive merit list will be prepared for each programme, and the same will be published on the University Website. From the comprehensive merit list, seats will be offered in order of NCET merit. The provisional allotment list will also be displayed on the University's website.
10. The admitted candidates are required to pay the requisite academic fee of the programme within the stipulated time as mentioned in the Activity Schedule. In case the candidate does not pay the academic fee, the seat shall be declared vacant and will be offered to the next eligible candidate(s) in the order of merit.
11. Vacancies resulting from cancellation/withdrawal will be filled from the waiting list.
12. If there is a tie in the NCET Score, the University Tie-breaking Policy (ANNEXURE - I) will be followed in offering the seat.
13. The Departmental Admission Committee (DAC) will check the eligibility of all the provisionally admitted candidates in the programme. The respective Department may contact the candidate for any clarification related to his/her candidature and may also ask for the resubmission of the documents if required.
14. If the candidate is found ineligible during the document verification stage, his/her candidature will be made ineligible to take admission in that programme and the admission will be cancelled.
15. The last date for Admission in Programmes offered through NCET-2026 and refund of fee on account of cancellation/withdrawal of admission will be as notified by the University/ University Grants Commission from time to time.

TIE - BREAKING POLICY

In case of a tie in NCET score, the following procedure will be followed in order to decide the merit:

1. The candidate, who scored higher marks in the qualifying degree, will be first offered the seat.
2. If there is a further tie in the score with regard to the above mentioned Point-1 (the case of same score in the qualifying degree), the seat will be offered to the candidate, who has scored higher marks in the concerned subject as per the eligibility of the programme.
3. If there is a further tie with regard to both of the above mentioned cases (Point 1 & 2), the seat will be offered to the candidate, who has scored higher marks in the preceding (relevant) degrees.
4. If the tie still continues, the candidate who is older in age will be given preference.
5. In case, the tie continues further with regard to all of the above mentioned cases (Point 1, 2, 3 & 4), the decision of the competent authority will be final and binding.
