

Central University of Haryana
Security Section

Dated: 20.12.2022

NOTICE CUM WARNING

This is for the information of all the students of the University, especially who are residing in various PGs in Village-Jant, that a complaint has been received from the Village Panchayat against the students of CUH and blaming that they are disturbing the villagers in their marriage parties and attend without invitation. Even the students, male as well as females, have been found involved in dancing on DJ and creating disturbance to the organisers.

Therefore, an advisory as well as warning is issued to all the students of the CUH not to involve in the marriage parties without proper invitation and stay away from creating any nuisance to their celebrations. If anything goes wrong with any of the students of CUH in such parties then the students themselves shall be responsible, not the University Administration.

Strict compliance to be adhered.

20/12/2022
Chief Security Officer